

"The support, mentorship, and dedication from faculty is amazing. Their passion for education helped enhance a lifelong passion that I barely knew existed in myself."

Children are the future, but teachers are the ones who make that future possible.

➔ Drake University's School of Education provides their students with expert faculty, a diverse array of coursework, and hands-on classroom experience. We maintain a commitment to collaborative learning in order to shape the teachers of tomorrow.

LET'S START A CONVERSATION.

The faculty and staff in the School of Education are experts in their field, dedicated to serving students. To help ensure an enriching experience during your visit, here are a few questions for your consideration:

- Why should I study education at Drake?
- What makes the Drake Teacher Preparation Program unique?
- What are endorsements? How many do I need?
- Can I teach outside of Iowa with my degree?
- What is the demand for teachers?
- Can I graduate in 4 years?
- What learning options exist outside the classroom?
- Are there research, service learning, or international travel opportunities?
- What is the classroom environment like? Typical class size?
- How is technology used in Drake education courses?
- What resources are available to help guide me in my academic pursuits?
- How is the city of Des Moines an asset to my education at Drake?

Getting a Drake degree means something and our alumni are known to find success everywhere, whether it be right here in Des Moines or across the globe. In fact, we have

14,500+

Drake School of Education graduates in all 50

states

and 19

countries