Weaver Lecture

April 22, 2009

Lon N. Larson, Ph.D.

Ellis & Nelle Levitt Distinguished Professor of Pharmacy Administration

Drake University

Thank you's and acknowledgements

Thank you – for attendance and support.

I am deeply honored and humbled to receive the Weaver Medal. I want to thank Larry and Dee Weaver for supporting this award and for all they have given back to Drake (the theme of my remarks today) – and for all they have done for pharmacy, especially pharmacy education. Ours is a better profession because of them. On top of everything, Larry and Dee are very nice people.

I want to acknowledge the previous recipients of the Weaver Medal – I am humbled to be listed among you.

Thanks to my nominator and those involved in my selection. I am relying on your judgment that this award is deserved and not merely an act of sympathy. Either way – I'm keeping the medal.
