This modification is made as of the 1st day of June, 2007
by Drake University to Drake University Point of Service Health Plan.
All other terms and provisions of the Plan remain unaltered and in effect.

The following text adds #23 to the Other Covered Medical Care section of the current Plan booklet.

- (23) Charges incurred outside the United States if:
- The participant becomes ill or injured while in a foreign country and requires medication;
 - The foreign medicine would require a written prescription by a licensed practitioner if prescribed in the United States; or
 - The participant provides acceptable documentation that they received a covered service from a practitioner or hospital and the practitioner or hospital prescribed the prescription drug. The participant must submit documentation or proof of payment for the drug to FAI for reimbursement.
 - The drug is not being reimported and the use and handling of such medicine does not otherwise violate U.S. law.
