

Erica S. Hartschen

Erica received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism and Mass Communication and her Master of Arts degree in Public Administration/Executive Development from Drake University. Her previous employment, for eight years, was at Hoyt Sherman Place in Des Moines, where she held the roles of intern, Volunteer Coordinator, and Events Sales and Services Manger. During her time at Hoyt Sherman Place she had the responsibility to oversee thousands of events, ranging from small dinners and weddings in the Art Galleries to sold-out concerts, nationally-renowned speakers, and dance recitals in the historic theater. Erica joins Drake University as Assistant to the President for Advancement.
